MILLVILLE, N. J., July 18, Jacob Johnson, a young man of this village. had a terrible race with death against tremendous olds yesterday and he won. Johnson was placed in the Bridgeton the country." jail three months ago for disorderly conduct while under the influence of iquor. It nearly broke the heart of Jacob's young wife when she heard of her husband's plight and he was deeply humiliated by the disgrace he had brought upon his family and his friends. The latter made every effort to get him off, but the magistrate could not be induced to revoke his sentence and to jail Jacob had to go. A few days ago, when his term had almost expired, Jaob learned that his wife, who had been taken sick after his imprisonment, was lying at the point of death.
